THE CORRAL 1950

To Rev. C. K. Roberts and Mrs. Roberts
from
The Senior Class

Annual Staff

Staff composed of entire Senior Class with Junior Class representatives—Mollie Newman, Jimmie Redwine, Sue Putman, Tommie Strother, Mary Jim Ashburn. Photographer—Wayne James, Freshman.

V. Putman, Sponsor

Foreword

The theme of this volume of the Corral represents the Spirit of Progress. With the construction of our modern cafeteria, the completion of the new high school building, the addition of agriculture and home economics to our curriculum, increase in members of the faculty with the increase of scholastics, we feel that it is very fitting that we present this volume of the Corral to you proudly proclaiming that fact that we are marching onward and upward.

Melba Roberts, Editor

Dorothy Evans, Business Manager

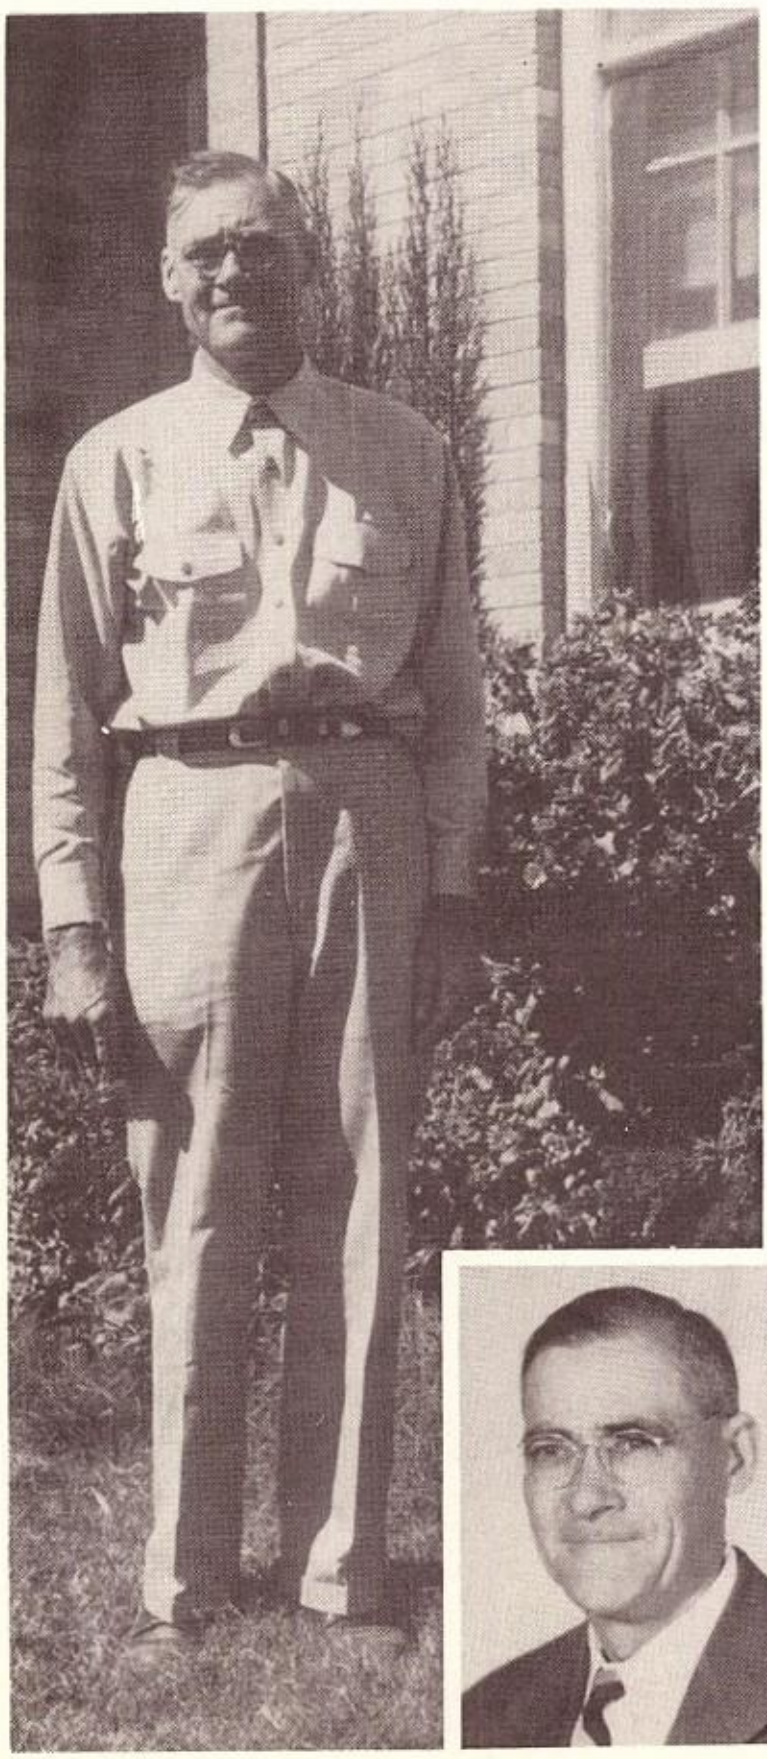
Dedication

In dedicating this volume of the Corral to our custodian, Mr. A. E. Todd, we have no thought whatever that this remembrance is in any sense commensurate with our debt of gratitude, but at least it is expressive of our love and sense of appreciation for his patience, earnestness, and guidance.

The following poem by Grace Noll Crowell expresses what we feel that Mr. Todd has meant to the students of Shallowater School.



Members of Senior Class

Mrs. Putman, Sponsor

IT TAKES SO LITTLE

It takes so little to put back the heart
In any one: a loving word of praise,
Uttered sincerely, oftentimes may start
A light like sunshine running through the days.

It takes so little when the heart is sad
To lift it up—some bright encouragement
May reach the sorrowing one and make him glad,
Even when seemingly all hope is spent.

It takes so little, why should we withhold
That precious thing within our power to give?
Love, like a warm garment in the cold,
And sympathy for others while we live?

It takes so little, ah, dear God, I pray,
Help us to give it wisely day by day.

Superintendent's Message

The faith which the community has placed in us demands nothing short of the very best. Let us see to it that our work stands high in quality; that we keep faith with the people of the community.

Let every student make up his mind firmly to live such a life both inside the school and later in the great world outside, that the community will find in him justification for the money and effort expended.

May this book keep alive the memory of friends and the glorious spirit of Shallowater High School.

Sincerely Yours,

Dee Hancock

Principal's Message

May this MUSTANG be a reminder of the pleasant days we spent together in Shallowater High School this year.

May this high school just be a beginning of your education. Set your goal on a higher education and strive to reach that goal. Choose your vocation and prepare yourself to meet life's problems in that work.

When you work, do your work well, be happy by making others happy, and never let an opportunity pass to say a kind word or encouraging word to or about some one.

I would like to congratulate the staff of the MUSTANG and the sponsor on their splendid work in publishing such a nice annual.

Yours sincerely,

Dalton James

Last Will And Testament

We, the members of the Class of 1950, of the High School of Shallowater, having come to our last hours in our right minds, and in peace with all the world do hereby give, bequeath and devise all our wordly goods and possessions to the following beneficiaries:

To the Juniors we leave our well-known ability to talk back in self defense, and to make any action we may see fit to commit, seem perfectly justifiable and proper, in fact the only thing to do.

To the Sophomores, who are soon to become Juniors, we bequeath all our stupidity and facility for blundering at the simplest tasks, also the beautiful ease with which we forget, set aside and banish forever the difficult ones.

To the Freshmen we give and bequeath all the tears shed in the exams and all the wrong answers set down in moments of weakness.

I, Walter Hutton, bequeath my natural aptitude for acquiring knowledge, and all the hungering and thirsting after information usually accompanying these traits, to J. D. Young, the most indifferent boy in the Junior Class.

I, Alice Porter, bequeath my entire stock of boy friends, addresses, telephone numbers, convertibles to Jimmie Redwine.

I, Betty Evans, bequeath to Mary Jim Ashburn a small package of much value with an inscription on the outside which says "Fragile! Handle with Care"—What's inside? Oh, I forgot to tell you—Donald Wages.of course.

We, Alice Russell and Newman Lusk, bequeath our pleasure of "going-steady" and ability to be true to one another to Oleta Boozer and Dayton Marr.

I, Sammie Clark, bequeath all my love for the "good, the true and beautiful" which I find in Ted to Sue Putman and may she find the same happiness with Tommy Strother.

I, Bobby Reed, bequeath a very valuable jewel (the most valuable articles come in small packages, you know) to Jerry Lindsey—You will know this "jewel" by her blond hair, blue eyes, and broad smile.

I, Thomas Ray Reed, bequeath my entire stock of energy which enabled me to study from morning until night, and by this sign never to fail in making my grades, to Leslie King with the hope that he will be Valedictorian.

I, Willimae Betts, bequeath my art of bringing about proposals to Francell Williams because I think she will enjoy breaking them, too.

I, Peggy Arnold, bequeath my social career done up in a neat little package marked "The Loves of Peggy" to Mollie Newman. I know that she will enjoy it if she and all parties concerned live through the ordeals without serious injury.

I, Dorothy Evans, bequeath my love for music and those who make the music to Carle Foye Evans.

I, Mary Ruth Redwine, bequeath my out-of-town boy friends to Nannie Lou Wright.

I, Novella Crump, bequeath my courage and ability to wear high heels to Virginia Luck—May she never lose another shoe.

I, Harold Clark, bequeath my Hopes and Desires to Roy Herron—May they serve him as well as they have served me for the past four years.

I, Donald Wages, bequeath my fickle heart to Benny Conger.

I, Ted Simpson, bequeath my college aspirations to Venita Pettiet provided she continues to think not of marriage.

I, Mary Thornton, bequeath my movie aspirations to Margarett Lytal—May they at least gain her some autographs.

I, Junior Winfield, bequeath my indifference to the charm of red-headed beauties to Billy Smith.

I, Melba Roberts, bequeath my being allergic to love to all girls in the Junior Class—May this portion be divided equally among them.

To Miss Elleine Woodward we leave an electric searchlight which will enable her to find the "shortest distance between two points" and the "locus of a point" we spent a year searching for these things and never found them.

To Mrs. Hancock we bequeath a most efficient reading glass, whereby she will be enabled to discover not only errors in English, but also misplaced commas, periods, semi-colons, apostrophes, quotations, and exclamation points—She will need it next year with the Senior Class of 1951.

To Mrs. Maxey we bequeath an X-ray machine which will enable her to detect and trace any "lovering" among either Juniors or Seniors.

To Mrs. James we bequeath a berry pie, which she might find useful in explaining fractions next fall.

To Mrs. Merrell we bequeath a bundle of safety pins, cake of mechanic's soap—needle, thread and a bushel of aspirins so she will be supplied for next year's high school emergencies.

To Coach Booz we bequeath a bottle of liniment for his aching muscles caused by putting us through the grind.

To Mrs. Putman, we bequeath all the old annual material and play books and a cozy corner in the old Science room where she may spend her last days re-making annuals, practicing plays and enjoying the familiar "smell" of the Science room.

To Mr. James, our principal, we bequeath a leather-covered notebook, in which he will find all the excuses offered for tardiness—and having survived a year with us, we leave the utmost affection and gratitude, and the hope that the class of 1951 will strive to be as good a class as we.

To Mr. Hancock, our Superintendent, we bequeath a most valuable and lonely thing, Our Example, may he benefit by our mistakes, if such he has discovered. We also leave our very good wishes.

And to the other teachers we bequeath a portion of our affection and good will.

We hereby appoint the said class of 1951 executors of this our last will and testament, jointly with the principal and superintendent.

Oh, Donald, I'll Miss You So!
Good bye, My Dear, Good bye -
Some day you'll Knock upon my door
I'll fly! Oh my dear, to you I'll fly.

Goodbye, I'm fickle as you can see
The world's too Big for just one girl and Me!
Don't grieve for me against that wall -
I'll be back to you by Next fall.

Ted, Dear, You're So divine -
Please give up and say You'll Be mine!

I'll give up, Dear — and as everyone knows -
My heart is as big as All Out Doors -
So from now on I will be yours.

I wish that I were a Balloon that would drift over My way.

I never was one to sit around and Moon
But my heart has gone up in a toy Balloon -
I adore him in the morning, I dream of him at Night -
I love him when the stars are dim, and when the stars are Bright -
I'll find another by and by
The day may be very soon
Just as soon as I get my strings on him
I'll stick a pin in this toy Balloon ——

He'll be here at eight - He's never Late -
Who? Why, Of course, My Date

I'm thrilled and happy
I'm just Not the Same
Since we really went to work and Won that Last Ballgame.

We're going Steady now, and my heart is as light as a feather -
I believe for sure now that we'll walk the long, long trail together ——

Junior, it's so boring when you want to eat all the time!

But I'm hungry

We'll go walking in the moonlight, and then we'll Pause

We'll go for a walk in the moonlight, but You'll keep your Paws to yourself

Is there any Hope for Me?

Maybe

What makes you so tough?

I was raised on Marble cake, Brick ice cream and Rock candy land

Newman, you're Beautiful

I Know it

If I knew you better I'd Kiss you.

Wonderful Harold Must Never Know!

I dream about you

Yeah! and if you'd Kiss me, You'd Know me better

Boo!!

Playoff Finals Slated Tonight

SHALLOWATER, Feb. 10. (Special) — The biggest basketball crowd in Shallowater's history, an overflow throng of some 1,200 fans, tonight saw Roosevelt and Shallowater cop second-round victories in the Lubbock county girls playoff.

Roosevelt's powerful sextet had to go all out to edge Cooper, 30-28, in tonight's opener. Margaret Rucker's 22-point performance highlighted Roosevelt's offensive, while Faye Box hit 13 and Wynelle Baldwin 11 for Cooper.

In a thrilling finale, fine play by Guards Melba Roberts, Betty Evans and Novella Crump helped Shallowater to an 18-17 win over New Deal.

Luck Leads Winners

Virginia Luck scored eight points and Alice Russell added seven for the winners, while Freshman Wanda Arant led New Deal with 12.

Tonight's results left Roosevelt with a 2-0 playoff record, Cooper and Shallowater each 1-1, and New Deal 0-2.

At 7:20 p. m. Saturday, Shallowater meets Cooper to determine which shall advance with Roosevelt to the district tournament. Roosevelt plays New Deal at 8:30 p. m. Saturday, and can sew up the undisputed Lubbock county girls title with a triumph.

Shallowater Cagers Top Levelland, 35-30

SHALLOWATER, Dec. 6 (Special) — Shallowater's Mustangs, picking up where their Class B district and regional winners left off last year, won their 18 basketball game of the year without defeat last night by beating Levelland 35-30.

In a girls game preceding the varsity tilt, the Levelland girls won in a close game 23-21.

Bobby Reed, elusive successor to Derrell Murphy, fired the goals that gave the Mustangs their victory. Reed drove in for two quick goals with the score tied at 25-all and the Ponies never were headed after that.

Reed was the night's high scorer with 14 points, while a trio of Lobo shooters, Bailey, Guinn and Spence, each had seven for the losers.

The game was close all the way. The Mustangs and Lobos were tied at 6-6 at the end of the first quarter. They were locked at 15-15 at the intermission. And the third quarter ended with the score tied at 25-25.

Wednesday and Thursday nights the Shallowater girls will play Slaton here in conference games. Saturday night the Ponies play Roosevelt in an exhibition game as part of the state-wide girls basketball tournament there.

Mustangs Take 7-B Cage Title

Shallowater Defeats Roosevelt, 40 To 34

SHALLOWATER, Feb. 17. (Special)—Shallowater took undisputed possession of the District 7-B crown here tonight with a close playoff win over Roosevelt, 40-34.

Walter Hutton pitched in 11 points as the Mustangs grabbed their second straight win from Roosevelt. Paul Hammett garnered 11 for the losers.

Tonight's margin was somewhat closer than Thursday's 41-27 win for Shallowater and the Eagles of Roosevelt battled all the way in a vain attempt to keep their playoff hopes alive. The victors had a 17-15 lead at half-time.

Shallowater's "B" squad made it a twin triumph for the home-team with a 27-24 victory over Roosevelt. Fields of Shallowater and McCallister for the losers shared high point honors for the night by meshing nine points apiece.

In consolation games Shallowater found the range to thoroughly defeat Plainview, 45-17, in second round play, with Hutton hitting the hoop for 16 points. Howton was high again for Plainview with seven points.

Shallowater got off to a fast start, leading 20-0 before the Bulldogs could hit.

Friday night Shallowater journeys to Roosevelt for the second game of the series. The third game, if necessary, will be played Saturday night on a neutral court.

Each playoff session will start at 7:30 p.m. with a "B" game, which will be followed by the championship contest. Admission will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students each night.

After Saturday night's championship clash, an all-tournament squad selected by coaches, officials and writers was announced by tourney directors. It included: Lynn Hart and Leslie Cator, Gruver; Standlee Fulfer and Douglas Dennis, Dimmitt; Donnie Reynolds, Ropesville; W. H. Bryant, Canadian; Doug Coleman, Samnorwood; Bobby Reed, Shallowater; Don Lewis, Quitaque; and Clarence Wright, Dawson.

Shallowater, although weakened by the illness this week of four of its five starters, is set to make an all-out defense of its title. The Lubbock county crew has chalked up 35 triumphs this season against six setbacks, thanks largely to a well-balanced attack and the great rebound work of six-foot-two Walter Hutton.

Russell scored 13 points to lead the Shallowater girls to a 26-15 win over Ropesville. Bowen made

Playoffs Start In District 7-B

District 7-B basketball playoffs opened last night at Roosevelt and Shallowater High schools, with Roosevelt licking Cooper 48-31 and Shallowater trouncing New Deal 38-23.

Tonight the teams change locations in the best two out of three series, with Roosevelt going to Cooper and Shallowater moving to New Deal.

Cooper, second place team in the south half of the district, fought gamely, but never was in the thick of things. Roosevelt led all the way in carrying the fight. Roosevelt completed its season first in the north half of the district.

Hammett And Smith

Paul Hammett and Homer Smith, both of Roosevelt, shared scoring honors with Vincent of Cooper, all with 12 points.

In the B game, Cooper beat Roosevelt 36-27.

Bobby Reed and Walter Hutton, with 15 and 11 points respectively, led the Mustangs to their victory over New Deal's Lions. The Ponies led all the way and held a 17-10 margin at the half. Hobgood was high for the losers with nine points.

In the B game, New Deal racked up a 33-21 victory, with Wales scoring 16 points for the losers. Roy Herron topped the victors with eight points.

Shallowater Quintet Downs Cooper, 33-25, In 7-B Game

SHALLOWATER, Jan. 3. (Spl.). Shallowater High's cage quint tonight launched its District 7-B campaign with a 33-25 victory over Cooper.

Harold Clark's 10 points paced the Shallowater scoring, while Bobby Vinson posted nine points for the losers.

It was Shallowater's 21st win in 23 games this season.

In a District 18-A girls game, Cooper gained a 27-17 verdict over Shallowater. Wynell Baldwin tallie 12 points for the victors, but Shallowater's Betty Evans was high for the game with 13.

Shallowater School Wins Play Contest

Shallowater High school Thursday night won first place in the District B Interscholastic league competition for one-act plays held at O. L. Slaton Junior High school.

The winning play, 'The Patchwork Quilt,' was directed by Mrs. Verna Putman. Frenship High school, the other member of the league, won second place with its production of 'Blue Teapot,' directed by Mrs. A. F. Rasor.

Novella Crump, Shallowater, and Jimmy Pottet, Frenship, were named as the outstanding performers in the meet.

They plays were judged by Mrs. Rem Thompson of Lubbock.

Shallowater Students Win Debate Contest

Two Shallowater High school students, Peggy Arnold and Mollie Newman, were named winners of the District 7-B debate contest of the Interscholastic league last night in Lubbock county court house.

Second place winners were Joan Naylor and Jerrell Isbell, who represented Frenship High school at Wolfforth in the contest.

The winning team, directed by Mrs. Dee Hancock, will compete in the Regional Interscholastic league debate contest, to be held April 22-23 at Texas Tech.

Active In Dramatics

Miss Arnold, daughter of Mrs. Edna Arnold of Shallowater, is a junior in Shallowater High school. She has been active in high school dramatics and athletics. Miss Newman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Newman, is a Shallowater High school sophomore, where she has participated in dramatics. Both winners are honor students.

Mrs. A. F. Rasor, member of the Frenship faculty, directed the second-place team.

Alternate team for Shallowater High school was composed of Sammie Clark and Harold Clark. Alternate team members of the Frenship school were Dorris Williford and Noma Sue Goodpasture.

Mrs. Varina Putman, district director, was in charge of the contest.

Cubs To Meet Shallowater '5' Tuesday Night

The Brownfield Cub "A" and "B" basketball teams will play return games here tonight (Tuesday) with the strong Shallowater cagers, whom they defeated last Thursday night in a pair of games on the Shallowater court.

Their loss to Brownfield was the third defeat of the season for the Shallowater "A" team and they are expected to be out for revenge in tonight's game. An overflow crowd is expected. The only other teams to defeat Shallowater this season were Hollis, Okla., and Samnorwood, Tex.

. . . Derrell Murphy, the ex-Shallowater star who has been going great guns with the SMU freshman cage squad, now weighs 185 pounds. H.'s six-two. And Lubbock's Charles Galey, also a top performer with the Colts, is rated as one of the club's top players

In the "A" game last Thursday night at Shallowater, the score was tied, 32-32, with two minutes to go. The Cubs forged ahead on two field goals and a free toss while holding their opponents to two free throws. The final score was 37-34.

Ann Vaughan And Jimmy Clark Exchange Vows At Shallowater

SHALLOWATER (Special)—Double ring rites united Ann Vaughan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Vaughan of Shallowater, and Jimmy Clark, son of the Mr. and Mrs. William Drew Clark of Hollis, Oklahoma, at twilight Saturday evening at the First Methodist church. Rev. Cecil Attinger pastor, officiated.

Greenery banked the altar arranged with tall baskets of yellow gladioli and fern and illuminated by yellow tapers in candelabra.

Nancy and Mary Jim Ashburn lighted the candles as Mrs. George Leftwich played "The Rosary." Prenuptial selections included "Indian Love Call," "Spring Song," "Barcarolle" and "A Dream. 'I Love You Truly' by Bond was sung by Robert Sport and Cyrus Brown sang "Because" by D'Hardelot. "Traumeri" was offered during the repetition of the vows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white bridal lace and satin designed with a full net over-skirt, fitted bodice and long sleeves that came to points over her hands. Her fingertip veil fell from a pearl tiara and she carried an arm bridal bouquet.

Sue Putman, cousin of the bride and maid of honor, wore a yellow taffeta gown, styled with fitted basque cap sleeves and a full skirt of taffeta net. She wore a headdress of yellow carnations.

Mrs. Scott Vaughan, sister-in-law of the bride, and Sammie Joan Clark, niece of the bridegroom, wore dresses fashioned identical to Miss Putman's. Each attendant carried a colonial bouquet of yellow carnations.

Harold Clark served his brother as best man. Rheaford Coaly of Hollis, Oklahoma, nephew of the bridegroom, Thomas James, Tec Simpson and Scott Vaughan were ushers.

Wedding guests attended a reception in Fellowship hall at the church immediately following the exchange of nuptials. Receiving guests were Mrs. J C. Putman, Mrs. Joe Boozer, Mrs. Garland Boozer, Mrs. L. J. Vaughan and members of the wedding party.

Centering the lace-laid table was the two tiered wedding cake embossed in yellow roses and lilies of the valley and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Crystal candelabra bearing yellow tapers flanked the centerpiece. Baskets of gladioli were placed throughout the reception hall.

For a wedding trip to Houston, Galveston, and other points in the south, Mrs. Clark chose a navy blue gabardine suit with ivory accessories. A corsage of yellow roses completed her ensemble.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Clark are graduates of Shallowater high school. They plan to make their home on a farm near Shallowater.

AUGUSTUS F. REESE, JR.

First Lieutenant Augustus F. Reese, Jr., was born in Josephine, Collins county, Texas, in 1917. He moved with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus F. Reese, Sr., to West Texas in 1929.

He attended Shallowater High School, graduating in May 1935. Graduated from Texas Technological College August 1939 with civil engineering degree.

Joined Army in January 1941. Transferred to Air Corps November 1941. Received his wings at Stockton, California, May 1942.

Transferred to England, October 1942 and later to North Africa. Killed in action at Cagliari, Sardinia May 14, 1943 while flying a volunteer mission to destroy an enemy supply train.

Reburial services held at Fort Sam Houston National cemetery, San Antonio, Texas, March 28, 1949.

Renaming Ceremony Set At RAFB

In Memory of

FIRST LIEUTENANT AUGUSTUS F. REESE, JR.

Who gave his life for his country

Cagliari, Sardinia—May 14, 1943

DURING THE REVIEW—The color guard passes a group of officers, left, who are formed below the reviewing stand during renaming ceremonies Sunday at Reese Air Force base. Approximately 2,000 officers and men marched by in review, to the accompaniment of the 514th Air Force band, shown at right. In addition, a spectacular aerial show was presented. (Staff Photo.)

MORE THAN 15,000 ATTEND RENAMING PROGRAM

RAFB Holds Ceremony

By EMMETT SHOCKLEY
Avalanche Staff Writer

MORE than 15,000 South Plains residents Sunday were guests of Reese Air Force base at an open house after which ceremonies were held in honor of First Lt. Augustus F. Reese, jr., Shallowater war hero for whom the base is named.

High Air Force officials and base personnel staged a five-hour program for visitors, beginning at 11 a. m., with an open house and ending shortly before 4 p. m., with a spectacular aerial acrobatic exhibition by a quartet of jet fighter planes.

Estimates ranging from 15,000 to 20,000 were made on the number of visitors who attended ceremonies, although the official count at the gate numbered approximately 15,000 including base personnel. Over 3,000 cars entered the base, and many were turned away at the gate because of lack of parking space, military police said.

Parents Honored At Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus F. Reese, sr., of Shallowater, parents of the wartime flier, were guests of honor during ceremonies, which included the unveiling of a marble plaque by the flag pole in front of base headquarters, and a formal review on the ramp, with the presentation of the renaming orders to Mr. and Mrs. Reese by Col. G. W. Pardy, commanding officer of the base.

Reese was killed in action at Cagliari, Sardinia, on May 14, 1943, while flying on a volunteer mission to destroy a railroad supply train. His plane was enveloped in the explosion resulting from his successful bombing and strafing of the train.

The plaque, which commemorates the renaming of the base on Nov. 5, 1949, was unveiled in a simple ceremony at 1:30 p. m.

Presented By Local Groups

It was presented by Homer D. Grant, president of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, on behalf of that organization, and the Lubbock chapters of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the Disabled American Veterans.

Col. Pardy accepted it on behalf of the base. The ceremony ended with a prayer by Lt. Col. James M. Becker, base chaplain.

The marble plaque, mounted on a limestone base, reads as follows: "Reese Air Force Base, Dedicated in memory of Lt. Augustus F. Reese, jr., 1949."

The review, in which about 2,000 officers and men, all available personnel on the base, participated, began at 2 p. m. The airmen marched into position before the reviewing stand after which the general order renaming the base was read to them by Capt. Clyde W. Bradley, jr., cadet squadron commanding officer.

Betty Sue Caraway wills her studious habits to Ross Kennedy.

G. H. Moss wills his "sassy ways" to Kenneth Hill.

Betty Pace wills her Ipana smile to Wilma Wilkerson.

And, last, but not least, we will our reputation to the Seventh Grade students with the sincere hope that they improve their form of conduct so that they will have as good a reputation as we have had.

We cannot pass up the chance of leaving some of our treasures to the members of the faculty who have enjoyed the association with us. Remembering the fact that we helped them ease us out of the eighth grade into the magic influence of high school, we feel that we should go on to the finish and show our appreciation.

To Superintendent Hancock, we leave all the bubble gum that we enjoyed so much during the past. We will provide a map showing where most of it can be found.

To Mr. James we leave our waste paper, and he knows that most of it can be found hanging halfway out of the lockers and scattered about on the floor.

To Mr. Booz we leave our wise-cracks (We think we're comedians, but he thinks we're Smart Alecks) and noise makers.

To Mr. Houchin we leave the privilege of saying "Shut up". So that he can practice on the next year's eighth graders.

To Mrs. Putman we leave all our English, reading and spelling papers Without-the-proper-heading and with grades below 80—She Loves Them!! They will stimulate her and usher her into old age.

To the rest of the faculty members we leave the joy and anticipation that they will naturally receive anyway when they learn that they will have the pleasure of teaching us later on.

Shallowater Youth Is Awarded Jaycee Scholarship To Tech

An 18-year-old Shallowater High school senior who has retained that school's highest scholastic standing for three years, Thursday night was awarded a $200 agricultural scholarship to Texas Tech.

The scholarship was awarded to Junior Winfield by a special committee representing the Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the scholarship, after a careful study of the qualifications of several applicants.

Open To County Youths

The scholarship was open to any Lubbock county youth upon the recommendation of his vocational agriculture teacher or county agent.

Winfield, who said he was "tickled to death" over the honor, was accompanied to Lubbock by Rayburn Houchin, his vocational agriculture teacher, to hear the good news from Thelbert Miller and L. B. Smith, chairman and vice-chairman of the special committee of 16 selected to review the applications.

Helps On Farm

Despite the time he has taken to help on the farm of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Winfield of near Shallowater, and to work part-time in a Shallowater cafe in addition to working on neighboring farms during the cotton harvest, Winfield has a straight "A" record for the past two years with the exception of one "B" grade last year.

He was valedictorian of his grade school graduating class, and has held several positions of leadership during his high school career, including the presidency of the local FFA chapter there and various class offices.

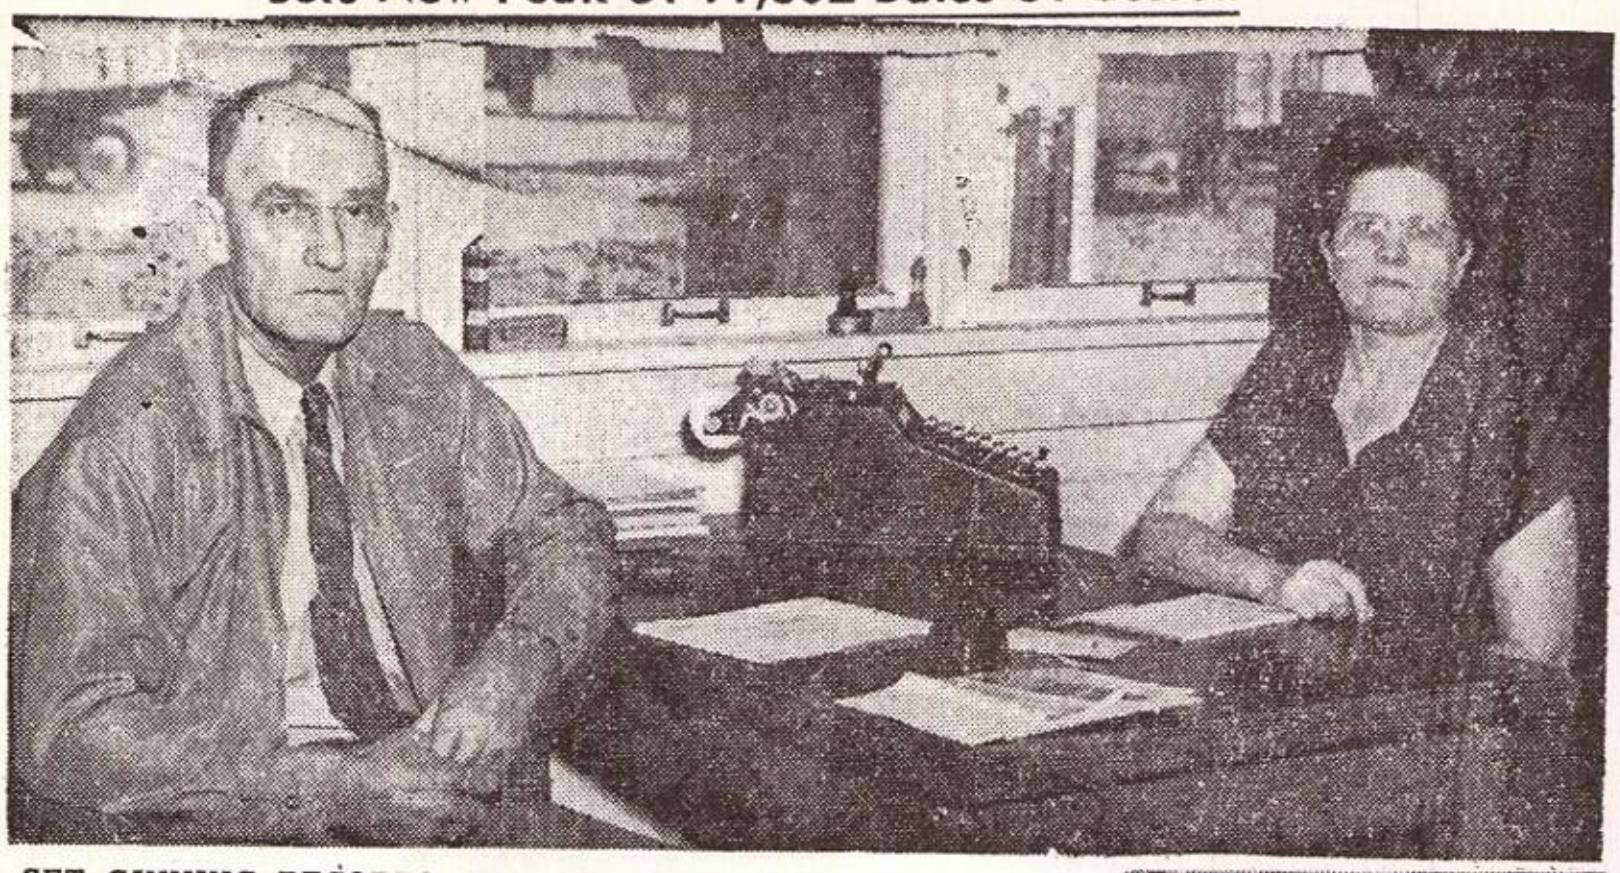
Sets New Peak Of 11,602 Bales Of Cotton



SET GINNING RECORD?—There may be several other gins in the area which have eclipsed the mark, but the Shallowater Co-Op gin is claiming a record for the total number of bales of cotton ginned during the 1949-50 season. The gin, managed by R. B. Sport, left above, ginned a total of 11,602 bales from Sept. 6 through Feb. 15, the gin's records show. At right in the picture above is Miss Vivian Reed, bookkeeper at the gin, and in the bottom picture is H. O. Calloway, ginner. (Staff Photos.)

Shallowater Co-Op Claims Ginning Record For 1949-50

Did any gin on the South Plains area turn out more than 11,602 bales of cotton during the 1949-50 season?

If so, it can lay claim to a record for ginning, now claimed by the Shallowater Co-Op gin.

R. B. Sport, manager of the gin, said his plant really "ginned" away during the past season in setting the new ginning record. Several days during the season, the gin turned out 97-99 bales in 12 hours, 99½ bales in 12 hours being the best day's ginning, Sport said. Eight bales an hour was a good average, he said.

The gin, a five-80 saw stand plant, has been a cooperative gin since 1936. It was built as a Farm Bureau gin in 1927. Sport has been manager since 1944, and in the ginning business 45 years. He started as a youngster at Detroit, Tex.

From 300 to 500 bales of cotton were in wagons and trailers on the yard throughout most the the season, Sport said. Day and night operation was followed from Oct. 3 through Dec. 24.

The gin has 23 employes and 379 stockholders. About 325 farmers brought cotton to the gin this season, Sport said.

The gin has averaged returning $70,000 a year to stockholders for the past several years, Sport said. The gin turned out 8,831 bales in 1947 and 8,623 bales in 1948. This year's labor bill was $25,119.91.

E. B. Teague is president of the gin's board of directors. H. G. Warren is vice president and C. C. Vance secretary. Directors are: R. C. Middlebrook, E. R. Merrell, C. B. Vardeman and Glenn Blackmon.

One other Lubbock county gin has passed the 11,000-bale mark and was still operating. It is the W. O. Fortenberry gin at New Deal, which has ginned 11,052 bales this season.

The successful modern School Annual is primarily a picture book. Your annual should serve as a history of the years activities in the school, completely told in story and pictures with special emphasis on pictures. Publish a book that will be interesting and desired by each subscriber. It should have an intimately personal quality and be filled with names and faces and events of the daily school life.

We have done our best to give you that kind of book—

Sincerely,

Varina B. Putman
